PURPOSE

GolfWorks Illinois is a unique high school/college aged internship program developed by the Illinois PGA Foundation to introduce young people like you to the many highly respected jobs and careers in the game of golf. In addition to providing fun, meaningful summer employment and the opportunity to meet new people and learn new skills, GolfWorks Illinois is a great way to gain exposure to the game of golf and its many traditions. You must have reliable transportation to get to and from work. You can expect to work 20-30+ hours per week at the facility. Read more about the program in the GolfWorks student handbook found on www.ipga.com/golfworks-illinois.

Eligibility

This vocational development program is available to high school/college aged men and women who:

- Are residents of Illinois
- Have demonstrated outstanding academic achievement and community involvement
- Have an interest in the golf industry and enjoy working with people
- Must be available to attend an organized field trip to the Women's KPMG for one day during the week of June 28-July 1, 2018

How to Apply

Students must complete and submit the below application form and supply the following under one cover:

High School Students:

- High School transcript
- A one page essay about yourself and what part of the golf industry you are interested in learning more about. The essay should be addressed to Ms. Catherine Wagner, Illinois PGA Foundation
